Closing Hymn

Jesus, My Lord, My God, My All

Jesus, my Lord, my God, my All!

How can I love Thee as I ought?

And how revere this wondrous gift

So far surpassing hope or thought?

Sweet Sacrament! We Thee adore!

Oh, make us love Thee more and more.

Oh, make us love Thee more and more.

Had I but Mary's sinless Heart

To love Thee with, my dearest King,

Oh, what with bursts of fervent praise,

Thy goodness, Jesus would I sing.

Sweet Sacrament! We Thee adore!

Oh, make us love Thee more and more.

Oh, make us love Thee more and more.

Holy Communion Devotions

From: True Devotion to Mary—by St. Louis Marie de Montfort

Before Holy Communion

- 1) Place yourself humbly in the presence of God.
- 2) Renounce your corrupt nature and dispositions, no matter how good self-love makes them appear to you.
- 3) Renew your consecration saying, “I belong entirely to you, dear Mother, and all that I have is yours.”
- 4) Implore Mary to lend you her heart so that you may receive her Son with her dispositions. Remind her that her Son’s glory requires that He should not come into a heart so sullied and fickle as your own, which could not fail to diminish His glory and might cause Him to leave. Tell her that if she will take up her abode in you to receive her Son—which she can do because of the sovereignty she has over our hearts—He will be received by her in a perfect manner without danger of being affronted or being forced to depart. “God is in the midst of her. She shall not be moved.”

Tell her with confidence that all you have given her of your possessions is little enough to honor her, but that in Holy Communion you wish to give her the same gifts as the eternal Father gave her. Thus she will feel more honored than if you gave her all the wealth in the world. Tell her, finally, that Jesus, whose love for her is unique, still wishes to take His delight and His repose in her even in your soul, even though it is poorer and less clean than the stable which He readily entered because she was there. Beg her to lend you her heart, saying, “O Mary, I take you for my all; give me your heart.”
