Closing Hymn

Ye Sons and Daughters of the Lord

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
Ye sons and daughters of the Lord,
The King of Glory, King adored,
This day Himself from death restored. Alleluia!

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
Now let us praise the Lord most High
And strive His name to magnify
On this great day through
Earth and sky. Alleluia!

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
Whose mercy ever runneth o'er
Whom men and Angel Hosts adore
To Him be glory evermore. Alleluia!

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

“REGINA COELI”

The Regina Coeli is used as a hymn of joy during the Easter Season (Easter Sunday until Trinity Sunday) when it is used in place of the Angelus (which is recited at noon and 6 p.m. daily) and also recited after Compline. It is piously believed that it was composed, in part, by Pope St. Gregory the Great.

In the year 596, during Easter time, a pestilence was ravaging Rome. St. Gregory the Great commanded that a procession be held, praying that the pestilence be stopped. On the appointed day of the procession he assembled with his clergy, at dawn, in the church of Ara Coeli. Holding in his hand the icon of Our Lady, that is said to have been painted by St. Luke, he and his clergy started out in procession to St. Peter's. As he passed the Castle of Hadrian, as it was called in those days, voices were heard from above singing the Regina Coeli. The astonished Pope, enraptured with the angelic singing, replied in a loud voice: “Ora pro nobis, Deum. Alleluia!” At that moment an angel appeared in a glorious light, sheathed the sword of pestilence in its scabbard, and from that day the pestilence ceased. In honor of this miraculous event, the name of the castle was then changed to Sant' Angelo and the words of the angelic hymn were inscribed upon the roof of the Church of Ara Coeli.

*Queen of Heaven, rejoice! Alleluia!
For He whom thou didst merit to bear, Alleluia!
Hath risen as He said, Alleluia!
Pray for us to God, Alleluia!*

*V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia!
R. Because the Lord is truly risen, alleluia!*

Let us pray. O God, who by the Resurrection of Thy Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, hast vouchsafed to make glad the whole world, grant we beseech Thee, that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, His Mother, we may obtain the joys of eternal life. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
